Teej celebrations in the college

Pandemic casts shadow over 'Teej' celebrations at Khalsa College

AMRITSAR, JULY 28
The prevailing Covid-19 pandemic circumstances casted its shadow over the Teej celebrations at Khalsa College for Women (KCW). The annual festival, which otherwise are a grand affair, celebrated keeping in mind the safety measures this time. The staff wearing the masks and keeping to the social distancing, resorted to dance and music as the women folk, clad in colourful Punjabi costumes, kept the festive spirit high.

Students danced to the tune of traditional Punjabi music as teachers joined hands and recited 'Boliar' verses from folk music and performed 'Gidda' to welcome 'Teej', the rainy month, with which the festival is associated. "The festival speaks of the good times in the lives and how the girls break into dance and sing to welcome the rain month," said principal Dr Mangrovi Kaur. The female staff members took to Punjabi folk dance to the beat of the dhol. "It is unlike the last year when students and staff used to take part in the festival in large number. Due to the Covid-19, this year, the celebrations are limited but the spirit is as high as it could be," said KCW principal Dr Mangrovi Kaur who herself performed Gidda and said the festivals reminded us of the good times in our lives.

"This is the perhaps the only festival which are dedicated and celebrated by girls and women folk," said she. "We are happy that the staff organized such an extravaganza meticulously," she added. —TNS

With a view to enhance the comprehension in subjects we frame a bridge course to first semester programme students.

Objective of Bridge Course:

- To provide sufficient time to the students for the adjustment needed to settle in post graduate courses.
- To give a summary of the program outcomes, program specific outcomes and course outcomes.
- To give an opportunity to students to know about the teacher, course, syllabus and teaching methodology.
- An intermingling of students from different backgrounds.
- To bridge the gap between previous knowledge and the course opted.
- To make student realize how far they have come and how far they have to go.
- To establish a deeper sense of bond by breaking the ice between teacher and student.
- To provide new entrant an overall view of college administration and student welfare programs.
- To make slow learners and newcomers at par with fast learners at the beginning of the course program.
